

Electrostatic Spraying Process

Are you looking for a home or business solution for infection control? Do you require a reactive or proactive solution? We will take some details and pass them to our contracts team.

Once the quotation is approved we will arrive to decontaminate your indoor space, which is complete and ready for use within 1 hour.

Contact Us

Provide Details

Quotation

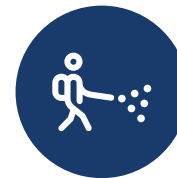

Electrostatic Spraying

How long will it last?

Get in touch with us via our website or by phone.

Our contracts team will provide you with a quotation. In an emergency situation we endeavour to respond within 30 mins & have a team onsite nationwide within 4 hours.

This is a recurrent service. Frequency is dependent on the client.

Are you looking for a home or business solution for infection control? Do you require a reactive or proactive solution? We will take some details and pass them to our contracts team.

Once the quotation is approved the product is installed and the premises is protected on an ongoing basis.

Contact Us

Provide Details

Discuss
Options

Installation

How long will it last?

Get in touch with us via our website or by phone.

Our contracts team will discuss your options for a longer term solution. Following a site visit we will confirm the best solutions for you.

This is a proactive long term solution. It is a once off install with a service contract.

Are you looking for a home or business solution for infection control? Do you require a reactive or proactive solution? We will take some details and pass them to our contracts team.

Once the quotation is approved the product is installed and the premises is protected on an ongoing basis.

Contact Us

Provide Details

Discuss Options

Installation

How long will it last?

Get in touch with us via our website or by phone.

Our contracts team will discuss your options for a longer term solution. Following a site visit we will confirm the best solutions for you.

This is a proactive long term solution. It is a once off install with a service contract.